UCA San Juan del Rio Coco is based in the northern highlands of Nicaragua. The coop has a membership of 8 cooperatives and 430 individual farmers of which a quarter are women. UCA San Juan is all about high quality coffee. Their efforts and resources are spent in taking care of the entire production of this small group of producers to ensure greater international market share, competitive pricing and quality control. They are organic and Fairtrade certified.

CUPPING NOTES: Sweet and sugary with milk chocolate and notes of roasted almond. Silky mouthful, bright acidity and medium bodied.

NOT JUST COFFEE, YOUR COFFEE.
