Located in the mountainous region of the Cajamarca province, the Cooperativa de Servicios Múltiples de San Ignacio, Aprocassi, was founded in 2000 by small producers committed to earning a fair price for their coffee. Aprocassi continually seeks to produce high-quality coffee and to improve its members' standard of living through higher prices. They regularly invest in programs that teach members how to improve coffee quality and productivity. Most families work on approximately seven hectares of land and grow a variety of products, including coffee in the higher elevations, and most is organic.

CUPPING NOTES: Citrus, Sweet, Milk Chocolate and Vanilla; Well Balanced, with a Medium Acidity and a Medium Body.

NOT JUST COFFEE, YOUR COFFEE.
