Kigabah Village and Plantation is adjacent to Sigrì and Bunum Wo in the Western Highlands Province and is synonymous with the finest in plantation coffee from Papua New Guinea. The main coffee grown here is Jamaica Blue Mountain, which was brought over from Jamaica to the Wahgi Valley in the 1920s. These trees thrive in the high-altitude conditions of the Wahgi, producing coffees of exceptional character and depth.

CUPPING NOTES: Dark Chocolate, Brown Spice, Nutmeg, Raisin and Some Winey Notes. Great body.

NOT JUST COFFEE, YOUR COFFEE.
