The Guji Adola site in Sidamo/Oromia was one of the primary strategic coffee sites for sourcing the finest specialty, premium commercial, certified and project coffees. Located in very high altitudes in Guji, the Adola site is surrounded by green and lush forest topography and huge mountains, nearby a government protected Park Forest. In the Afan Oromo language, Adola means "place of gold mining." This "gold mine" produces 22 containers of washed and 45 containers of naturals annually.

CUPPING NOTES: Bright Acidity, Medium Body, Blueberry, Floral, Black Tea, Lingering Fruity Finish.

NOT JUST COFFEE, YOUR COFFEE.
